Statement of Appropriate Officer's Responsibilities For the period ended 31 December 2024

The Appropriate Office (AO) is responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable Irish law and regulations.

The Electoral Acts and guidelines published by the Standards in Public Office Commission (SIPO) require the preparation of an annual statement of accounts that gives a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position any subsidiary organisations within scope at 31 December 2024 and of its surplus or deficit for the year then ended.

In preparing these financial statements, the AO is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- comply with generally applicable accounting practice in Ireland including FRS 102, subject to any material departure being disclosed and explained in the statement of accounts,
- prepare the statement of accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Party and any subsidiary organisations within scope will continue in operation.

The AO is also responsible for keeping all proper and usual books of account of the Company, and of its subsidiary organisations, that

- disclose at any time, with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the Company and its subsidiary organisations at that time, and
- enable the AO to ensure that annual statements of accounts comply with the guidelines.

Annual Report for the period ended 31 December 2024

Throughout 2024, Sinn Féin remained the leading voice for change on this island - holding the government to account, presenting clear alternatives, and connecting with communities across the country.

In a year marked by three key elections - local, European, and the general election - people across Ireland sent a powerful message: they want change. Sinn Féin fought each campaign with ambition, energy, and a vision of a fairer, united Ireland. Our candidates stood on platforms that put housing, healthcare, and the cost of living front and centre - and that message resonated.

While we made important gains, particularly at local level and in Europe, it's clear that the hunger for change is still growing. The general election, though not delivering the breakthrough we had hoped for, confirmed Sinn Féin as the largest party in terms of first preference votes. We take great pride in the trust placed in us by hundreds of thousands of people and remain absolutely committed to delivering on that mandate.

As the leading opposition party, Sinn Féin played an effective and constructive role in the Dáil challenging government failures while putting forward real and practical alternatives. We stood up for renters, workers, families, and small businesses. We used our platform to highlight the everyday struggles facing people in every part of the country, while also showing what a government of change would deliver. Our TDs worked relentlessly to hold ministers to account, expose bad policy, and fight for fairness and common sense.

The issues people faced in 2024 were stark. The housing crisis worsened - with rents climbing, home ownership slipping further out of reach for a generation, and homelessness at record highs. Sinn Féin continued to put forward serious, costed plans to build affordable homes, cut rents, and end the housing emergency.

Health remained under severe strain. Hospital overcrowding, record waiting lists, and the long-running crisis at the National Children's Hospital exposed the deep dysfunction of a system starved of leadership. We offered real solutions to recruit and retain staff, reduce waiting times, and ensure care is available when and where people need it.

The cost-of-living crisis weighed heavily on families, workers, and pensioners. Rising prices, stagnant wages, and a failure to address energy and childcare costs made daily life harder for far too many. Sinn Féin put forward alternative policies to provide security and support - prioritising those on low and middle incomes and protecting people from the worst impacts of government inaction.

Across the year, we also continued to build momentum around the conversation on Irish Unity. More and more people are engaging with the idea of a new Ireland - one that is inclusive, fair, and forward-looking. We renewed our calls for an All-Ireland Citizens' Assembly and for serious, structured planning by the Irish Government in anticipation of a unity referendum.

Annual Report for the period ended 31 December 2024

At every level - local councils, the European Parliament, and in the Dáil and Seanad - Sinn Féin is working to deliver real change. We want to show what a government of the people can look like: building homes, fixing health, making childcare affordable, tackling the cost of living burden on families and households, delivering climate justice, and preparing for a united Ireland.

2024 showed us how much people want something better. Sinn Féin is ready. We are determined. And we will continue to work day in, day out, to earn the right to lead a government that delivers for workers, families, and communities across this island.

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of the Party for the period ended 31 December 2024, which comprise the Statement of Income and Expenditure and Retained Revenue Reserves, the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Cash Flows, and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish law, FRS 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland, and the reporting guidelines issued by the Standards in Public Office (SIPO) Commission under the Electoral Act 1997 (as amended).

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of Sinn Fein as at 31 December 2024 and of its surplus for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland and with the provisions of the Electoral Act 1997 (as amended) and the guidelines issued by the Standards in Public Office Commission.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (Ireland)(ISAs (Ireland)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of Sinn Féin (and subsidiary organisations) in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Ireland;, including the Ethical Standard as issued by the Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority ("IAASA"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which ISAs(Ireland) require us to report to you where:

- The Appropriate officers use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate
- The Appropriate officer has not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Party's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Emphasis of matter

We draw attention to Note 1, which outlines the basis of preparation and reporting framework. These financial statements represent the first-time adoption of this framework and include a number of subsidiary organisations, many of which were previously unincorporated and had not prepared formal financial statements. Due to the decentralised and voluntary structure of these entities, there are limitations in the party's ability to identify all subsidiaries that fall within the scope of consolidation under Section 83 of the Electoral Act 1997 (as amended). This identification process is ongoing and based on information provided by the party. It remains possible that further subsidiaries exist but were not included. Responsibility for identifying such entities rests with the Party.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The Appropriate Officer is responsible for the other information. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed

Based solely on the work undertaken in the course of the audit, we report that:

- we have obtained all the information and explanations which we consider necessary for the purposes of our audit:
- the accounting records maintained by the Appropriate Officer of the Party were sufficient to permit the financial statements to be readily and properly audited;
- the financial statements are in agreement with the accounting records;

Respective responsibilities

Responsibilities of Appropriate Officer for the financial statements

As explained more fully in the Appropriate officers responsibilities statement, the Appropriate Officer is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the Appropriate officer determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Appropriate officer is responsible for assessing the Party's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing as applicable matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Appropriate officer either intend to liquidate the Party or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs(Ireland) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

The responsibilities of the Appropriate Officer for preparing the annual report and financial statements in acccordance with the applicable law and Accounting Standards are set out in the Statement of the Appropriate Officers responsibilities

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Party's internal control
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Appropriate officer.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Appropriate Officers' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Party's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the party to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. Accounting policies

1.1. Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Standards in Public Office Commission (SIPO) under the Electoral Act 1997 (as amended), and in compliance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 (FRS 102) applicable in the Republic of Ireland.

The financial statements are presented in the format prescribed by SIPO for the purpose of consolidation with the national party's annual statement of accounts. They do not constitute statutory financial statements under the Companies Act 2014 and are not intended for filing with the Companies Registration Office.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and on a going concern basis.

1.2. Income recognition

Membership and affiliation income is recognised on a cash receipts basis, as the timing and certainty of such income is dependent on the receipt of funds rather than when the entitlement arises. This departure from the accruals basis is considered appropriate given the nature of the income and the practical difficulties in determining accrual-based entitlements.

Grants, donations, and other income are recognised when the entity has entitlement to the funds, the amount can be measured reliably, and receipt is probable. Where income is received in advance of the related expenditure or service delivery, it is deferred and recognised in the period in which the activity occurs.

Income from the sale of goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have transferred to the buyer, usually on despatch of the goods; the amount of revenue can be measured reliably; it is probable that the associated economic benefits will flow to the entity and the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transactions can be measured reliably.

1.3. Tangible fixed assets and depreciation

Tangible assets are measured initially at cost, and are subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost or valuation less residual value of each asset over its expected useful life, as follows:

Land and buildings - Straight Line over fifty years

Plant and machinery - 25% Straight Line

Fixtures, fittings

and equipment - 12.5% Straight Line

Motor vehicles - Depreciated over finance term

1.4. Foreign currencies

Under FRS 102, transactions are to be translated at the exchange rate on the date of the transaction, while monetary assets and liabilities are to be translated at the exchange rate ruling at the balance sheet date.

The Standards in Public Office Commission (SIPO) has provided supplementary guidance for the preparation of consolidated statements of account by political parties. In particular, paragraph 53 of the guidelines permits, for practical purposes, the use of the year-end exchange rate for both transactions and the translation of assets and liabilities, provided this departure from FRS 102 is clearly disclosed.

In line with this guidance, all transactions and balances denominated in foreign currencies have been translated into Euro using the year-end exchange rate as published by the Central Bank of Ireland.

1.5. First-time adoption of the SIPO consolidated reporting framework

These financial statements have been prepared for the first time in accordance with the reporting requirements set out in the Standards in Public Office (SIPO) guidelines and the Electoral Act 1997 (as amended). This represents the first year of adoption of the SIPO reporting framework.

As part of this first-time adoption, the company has prepared consolidated financial statements which include a number of subsidiary organisations affiliated with the political party. In several cases, these subsidiaries were previously unincorporated entities that had not prepared formal financial statements in prior periods. The process of identifying, reviewing, and consolidating these entities has been undertaken for the first time. Subsidiaries may come in and out of scope depending on their activities in a given year, and the assessment of which entities are included is reviewed and determined by the Party on an ongoing basis.

As these financial statements represent the first year of consolidation under the SIPO framework, the reserves recognised on consolidation reported on the balance sheet represent the accumulated net assets of subsidiaries as at 1 January 2024. These amounts were not previously reported in a consolidated format and are therefore recognised for the first time in these financial statements.

1.6. Comparative and opening balances

These financial statements represent the first time the political party has prepared consolidated financial statements under the Standards in Public Office (SIPO) framework. As part of this process, a number of subsidiary organisations have been included for the first time.

Many of these subsidiaries were not previously required to prepare formal financial statements and did not maintain complete accounting records for earlier periods. Consequently, it was not possible to compile accurate prior year figures that would allow for meaningful comparison.

For this reason, comparative balances have been omitted from these financial statements to ensure clarity and to avoid presenting information that could impair the usefulness of the information presented.

1.7. Statement of cash flows

The cash flow statement has been prepared on the basis of current year figures only. Due to the absence of reliable opening balances for debtors, creditors, and other working capital items across a number of subsidiary organisations, it was not possible to present a comparative cash flow statement or accurately determine movements in working capital for the prior year. We have accounted for this in the cash flow statement as an adjustment to operating profit.

1.8. Stock

Stock is stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost comprises the original purchase price plus any incidental costs incurred in bringing the stock to its current condition and location. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Provisions are made for obsolete, slow-moving, or defective items where appropriate.
